OUR FUSSY BUZZY AEROPLANE

WORDS & MUSIC BY Charles William Caldwell

PUBLISHED BY
ORIGINAL SONGS MUSIC CO.
309 BROADWAY, N.Y.

Ed. R. Miller

Our Fussy Buzzy Aeroplane.

Words and Music by CHARLES WILLIAM CALDWELL.

Moderato.

1. Af - ter all the a - ges past, Man has won a - gain at last, What has
2. Un - der Heav - ens might - y scroll, Which ex - tends from pole to pole, We have
3. We have tri - umphed in the air, We will con - quer "Ov - er there?" Un - cle
4. When the cru - el war shall cease, With the dawn of per - fect peace, We will al - ways seemed in vain; He goes sail - ing through the air, Humming, found a new do - main, For our Pos - tal Ser - vice grand, Sail - ing Sam must win a - gain, He will swat the beast - ly Hun, 'Till the join in glad re - frain, With a whole world liv - ing free, Crown'd with hum-ming ev - 'ry-where, In his Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.

ov - er sea and land, In our Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.
vic - to - ry is won, With his Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.
glorious li - ber - ty, By our Fus - sy Buz - zy Aer - o - plane.

Chorus.

As we mount up high - er, In our Li - ber - ty fly - er, Let us

rit. a tempo

wave Old Glo - ry once a - gain; While the world grows wis - er We will fix old Bill Kais - er With our Fus - sing, Buz - zing Aer - o - plane.